Customize your resume for best results

- Whenever possible, tailor your resume to specific job postings by identifying what's most important to the company (make your resume about their needs).
- What responsibilities are mentioned first?
- What specific qualifications or requirements does the company list and are the most relevant?
- Are any themes repeated throughout? (like computer skills, leadership, multitasking, flexibility, etc.)
- Individuals with relevant, accomplishment-based, and concise resumes are more likely to get interviews.

Our Career Coaches are resume experts.

If you're seeking occupational training services...

- Research curriculums and schools including length of programs & tuition fees.
- Explore career options to determine which demand occupations are a good fit for you.
- Visit our website at: <https://www.ecc.edu/student-support/workforce-buffalo.html> to research guidelines and demand occupations (ITA eligibility guidelines may be subject to change without notification).

There are many Demand Occupations.

Initial eligibility for training

- Dislocated Worker status or Adult eligibility (Implemented with the WIB's Priority of Service and Supportive Services Policies). *Unemployment Insurance (UI) payments are INCLUDED as income.
- Meet Erie County WIB Demand Occupation criteria.

If you have a disability

We have special software & computers for your use...please ask staff if you need help.

Adult Career & Continuing Education Services – Vocational Rehabilitation (ACCES-VR) may be able to assist you. Ask for more information.

 ACCES-VR services are for individuals with disabilities that interfere with getting or keeping a job or who have difficulty advancing at their job.*

What we expect from you

Keep your appointments, call to reschedule if you can't make it or will be late.

You may be asked to do research, especially if you are seeking training services – it's important to follow through.

“Next-steps” may include researching different schools and finding relevant job you and so you are fully informed about industry requirements and the Local Labor Market.

Try to keep an open mind - your Career Coach is here to help you and often works many hours on your behalf in-between your appointments!

Follow Center Rules.

Participate in our follow-up services.

Workforce Buffalo SUNY Erie Career Center rules include

- No eating or drinking in the Career Resource Room or workshop rooms.
- Daily printing limitations apply if you are onsite.
- Resources and computers are for job searching purposes only.
- Please put your cell phone on vibrate/manner mode when you're onsite.
- Respect the confidentiality of others – do not record others or take photos of other participants.

All individuals using our facilities must be aged 18 or older. Therefore, we are unable to accommodate children in our Resource Room or workshops.

We understand that finding childcare can be a challenge, and we want to help you get the support you need. As an alternative, our sister office, the Downtown Career Center (716-856-5627), is a full-service career center with additional resources and options.
